Bio

Mary is an Associate at Keating, Bucklin & McCormack. Before joining KBM, Mary practiced at an insurance defense firm, where she worked throughout law school and during her first year as an attorney. Her experience focused on defending construction defect, premises liability, professional malpractice, and wrongful death claims. Mary graduated from Gonzaga University School of Law in 2025 and earned a CALI Award in Alternative Dispute Resolution.

While attending Gonzaga, Mary served as a Student Attorney in the Lincoln LGBTQ+ Rights Clinic, assisting clients with matters including identification document corrections, civil protection orders, second-parent adoptions, estate planning, and discrimination issues involving housing, employment, and education. She also externed for the Honorable Breean L. Beggs in Spokane County Superior Court and volunteered with the Moderate Means Program, expanding access to legal services for moderate-income individuals.

When Mary is not practicing law, she is likely catching a ball game at T-Mobile Park or enjoying some local theater with her family and friends.
